Another Beginning ...

Those first days of school are probably the most exciting of the year. Returning students renew old ties, while Freshmen and transfers adjust to their new environment. But, soon the Freshmen and transfers become Eagles, and take pride, laughter, excitement, and progress together to form our school, "Judson".

A Weekend Of Disney

Judson's Homecoming festivities were marked with a tribute to Walt Disney. A Disney dress-up day, King and Queen coronation, the traditional bonfire and a concert by Steve Camp were some of the various activities available to students. Numerous alumni were reacquainted with old friends and classmates and invited to attend a alumni banquet. The new scoreboard dedication and a victory over Olivet Nazarene were suitable conclusions to the successful weekend.

Parent's Weekend — A New Tradition . . .

Parent's weekend was an opportunity for parents to visit Judson College at the height of its busy fall season—worship services, sporting events, concerts, a faculty forum, and a major musical were all in progress. Parents had the opportunity to meet and talk with professors and become an active part of Judson life for a weekend.

Man Of LaMancha

Judson's theatre season began successfully with the presentation of "Man of LaMancha". The play, which is a story of hope seen through the eyes of Don Quixote, was performed nine times to sellout audiences. "A creative, learning experience" was achieved under the direction of David Larson when twenty-three actors and actresses, and an endless list of students and faculty provided their support in areas such as props, costumes, and orchestration.

Christmas by Candlelight

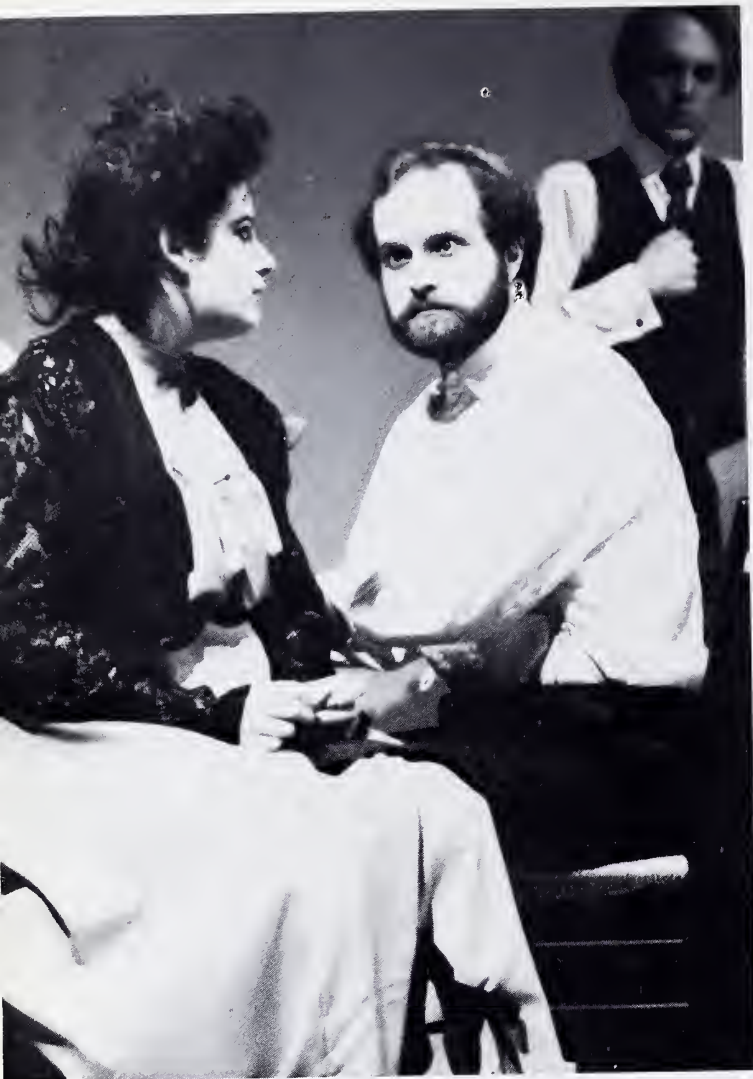

Christmas at Judson is traditionally marked by the annual Candlelight Dinner and Choir Concert. This year's theme — "Christmas by Candlelight" — was aptly portrayed with dinner performances by the Chamber Singers and concert performances by the Choir, Handbell ringers and Wind Ensemble.

ACTIVITIES

Accompanying the choir on their tour of Germany, the Handbell Ringers added a special touch to the program. As a fund-raising effort, the group held a 30-hour Ring-a-Thon. Contributions from the project enabled them to produce an album under the supervision of the Communication Arts Department.

Ringing Records Away . . .

Make a

Forty-six members of the Judson College choir under the direction of Dr. Ed Thompson, shared their testimonies with foreign audiences on their musical tour of Germany. Choir members also contributed many hours recording a tape in cooperation with the Communication Arts Department.

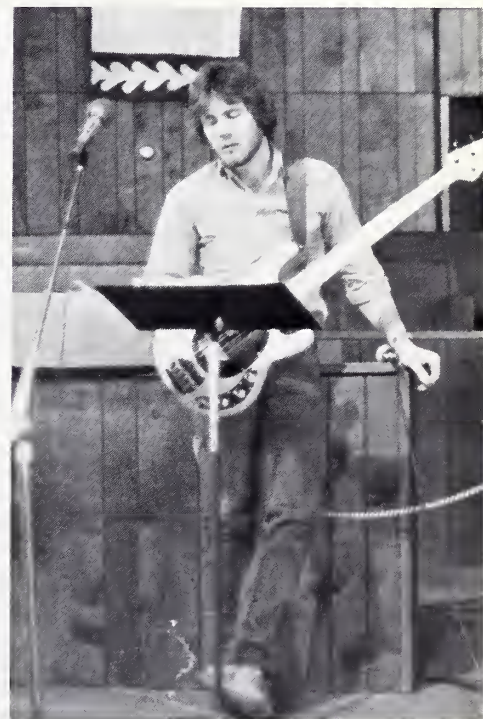

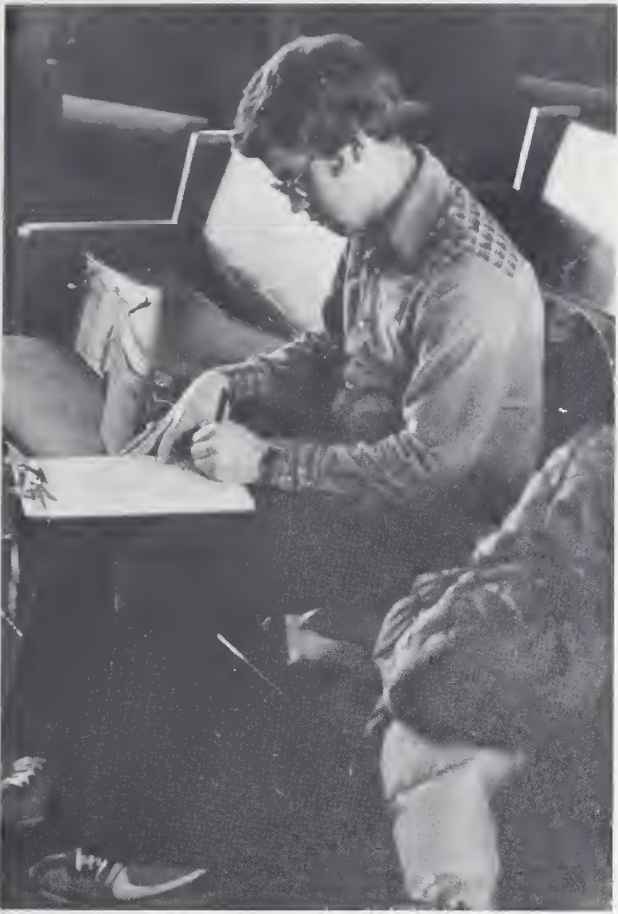

Joyful Noise . . .

Servant '81 is Judson's newest reach-out team, traveling for eight weeks during the spring to churches throughout the midwest. They share with churches through testimonies and song. Servant '81 also produced a record containing contemporary Christian music. Jack Frisby is the team captain in his third year touring with Servant. He is a senior majoring in human relations. Other Servant '81 members include: Melissa Allen, a senior majoring in fine arts; Phil Cash, a freshman also majoring in fine arts; Carol Heskett, a senior majoring in human institutions; Jeff Nelsen, a sophomore involved with musical and dramatic offerings; Marshall Pratt, a freshman majoring in fine arts; and Shelley Spiegel, a freshman majoring in communication arts.

Chamber Singers

The Chamber Singers are a singing group which travels and sings for community activities along with various chapel services. Their featured campus performances this year included the Candlelight Dinner and Commencement Concert.

Turning Point is a full-time musical ministry consisting of former Judson student, Phil Gore from South Point, Ohio and seniors Jim and John Lancaster from Perry, Ohio. Performing for five years, they have traveled extensively throughout the North Central States, giving hundreds of concerts in churches, camps, schools, auditoriums, and on radio and TV. Their main ministry is in church revivals with a youth emphasis. Through the ministry of Turning Point, hundreds of young people and many adults have committed their lives to Christ.

One very determined professor plus hours of work by several students and maintenance personnel, have succeeded in re-establishing radio station WJUD on Judson's campus. "I'm sure 500 man hours have been put into overhauling," stated Professor Merla Hammack, co-ordinator of the rebuilding efforts. The station had to be literally torn apart and reconstructed in order to make it suitable for production . . . walls were built, windows and doors installed, the heating redone, a thermostat added, ceilings insulated, and carpet layed. Fund raising projects were needed to create the money necessary to finance the new design and its equipment. Thanks to the generosity of various donors, several expensive production tools have now been added to the studio.

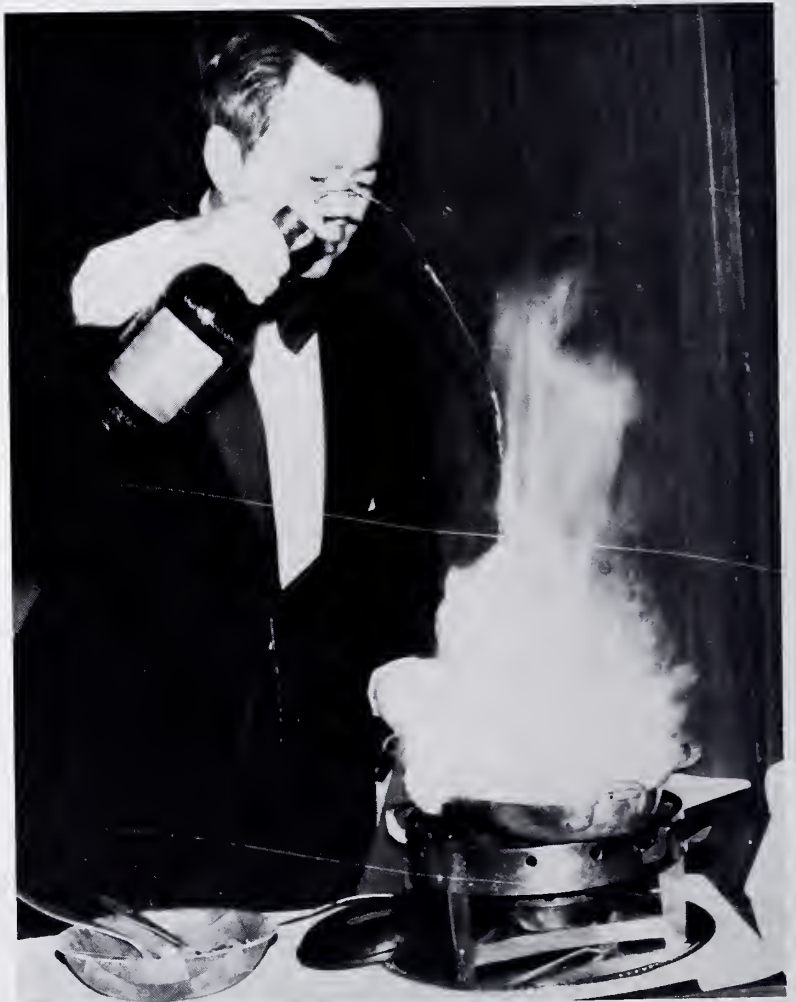

Starting Over . . .

Spiritual Baptism . . .

The music of "Friends of Jesus" plus Servant '80 and Servant '81 saturated Judson's sixth annual Evangelism Conference. High school students invaded the campus for a long weekend during February 19-22 to survey the college and learn from a series of seminars. Instructors included Judson professors, Bible teacher Dave Nichols, and evangelist Bob Laurent who addressed the evening rallies with messages on "Baptism by Fire" and "Baptism by the Spirit".

The Sky's the Limit . . .

Dinner on "the 95th floor" of the John Hancock Building highlighted Judson's Winter Formal. Across the street at the Drury Lane Theater, Gretchen Cryer's Broadway musical, "I'm Putting My Act Together And Taking It On The Road", provided the entertainment feature for the evening.

A First ...

Judson history was made the week of January 16-22, with the introduction of Black Emphasis Week.

The Range Family, along with Rev. Lawrence Williams, and Rev. Haman Cross, Jr. highlighted chapel services, in an effort to bridge the ever-present racial gaps in our society.

Black Emphasis Week

Little Sibs Visit Judson

Over sixty children and teens swarmed Judson's campus January 23-25 for the third annual Li'l Sibs Weekend. An Andrus Blackwood and Co. concert, basketball game, pizza party, and the movie, "Brian's Song", were a few of the many highlights included in the fun-filled weekend, which was sponsored by the Social Activities Committee.

Comic Relief

Laughter is a universal solution, even to the problem of fund-raising. Talent shows are a sure money-maker while also giving students a chance to express themselves. Making its debut as a fund-raiser for WJUD, was the highly acclaimed "Live from Judson College, It's Friday Night" starring the "Not Ready for Genesis Players" and Merla Hammahammadamma.

Face It . . .

Spiritual Enrichment Week

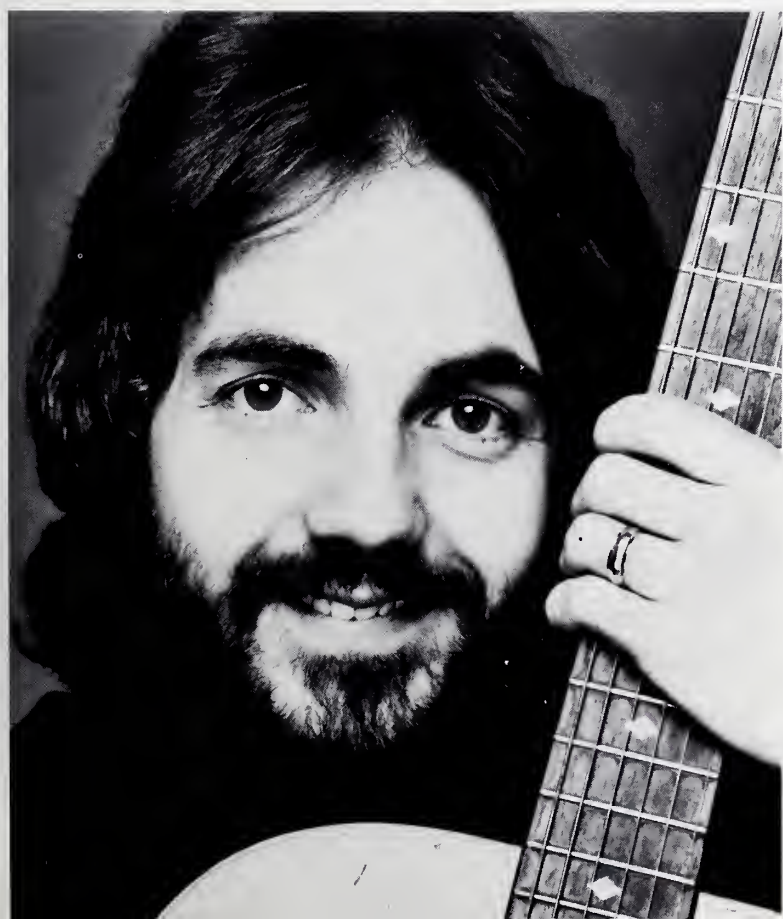

Concentrating on our spiritual lives — this phrase best defines the purpose of Spiritual Enrichment Week. This year's featured speaker was Dr. Joseph Bayly, vice-president of David C. Cook Publishing Co., and an established author and editor.

A communion service on Thursday night brought this week of spiritual focus to an appropriate finish.

During the year, Judson students were entertained by many top Christian recording artists. Featured groups included Randy Stonehill, The Sweet Comfort Band, Andrus, Blackwood and Company, Phil Keggy and Steve Camp.

The Miracle Worker

Judson theatre's winter production, "The Miracle Worker", was a story quite familiar to its audiences. The struggles of Annie Sullivan to free Helen Keller from a world of silence. Helen's fight for freedom — freedom to communicate, freedom to understand and to be understood.

The leading roles of Helen and her teacher, Annie, were played exceptionally by Polly Feen and Becca Buss. Directed by Dave Larson, the play was sold out for all performances.

When We Are Married

"When We Are Married," an English comedy by J. B. Priestly, was Judson's spring theatrical production. The play served to remind its audiences that sometimes in life, those who are the farthest from us make us realize the importance of those who are closest to us. Presented May 13-17 to sell-out crowds, the play was, in the opinion of Director Dave Larson, a success with its audiences.

Spring Brings Smiles . . .

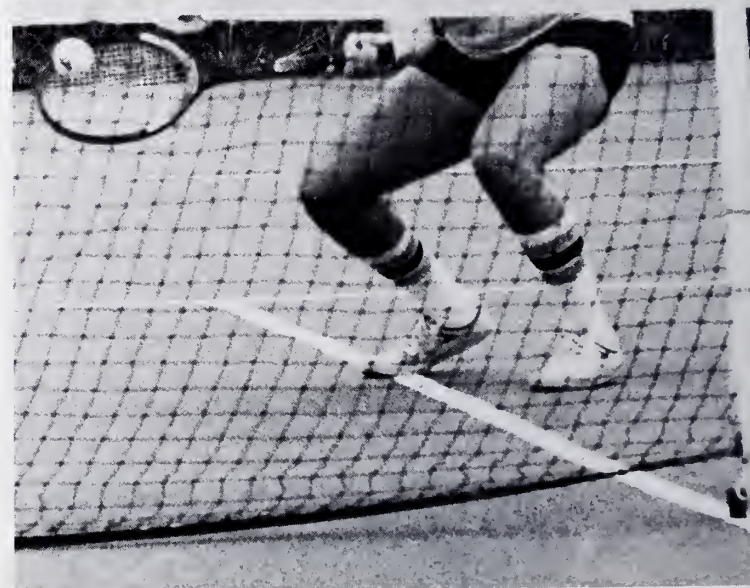

This year's spring banquet contained a variety of activities for Judson students to participate in. The action began with the election of the spring court. The students selected Jon Hood and Kay Armagost as King and Queen, respectively, along with Pam Richardson and Jeff Duke as Middler attendants and Sheila Carpenter and Trace Tucker as the Freshman attendants. After dinner at Victoria Station, festivities continued as banquet participants witnessed Judson senior Sue Mills-Wiggins win the title of Miss Elgin. The evening concluded at Judson with a performance by the Night Light Players.

Youth Versus Experience ...

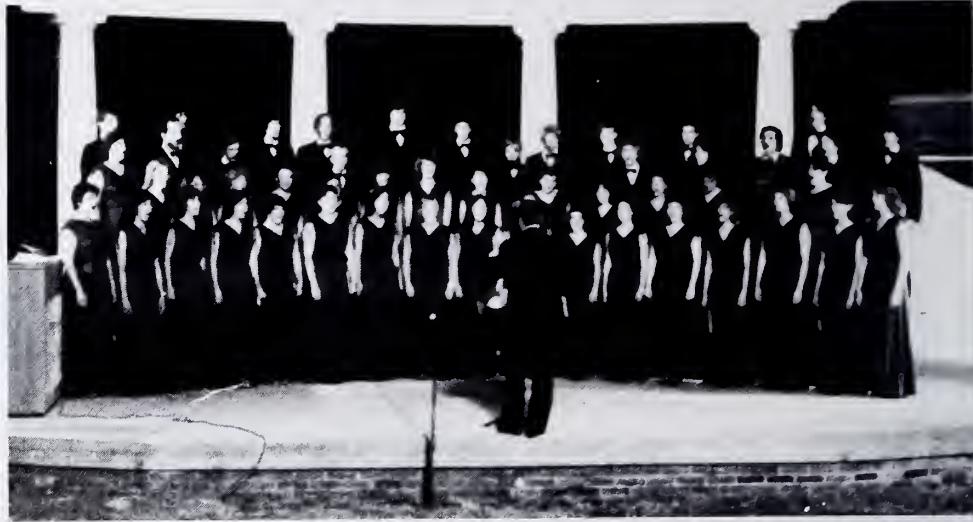

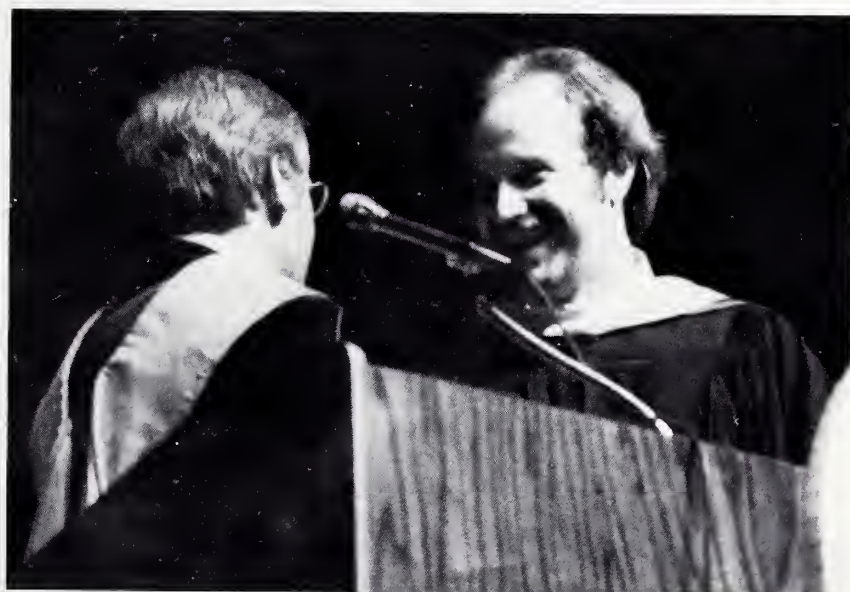

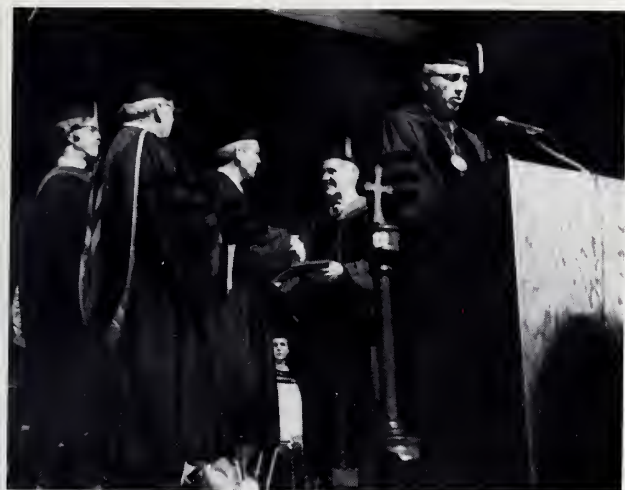

Alumni Sports Day — the chance for Judson sports teams, old and new, to regather and compete against each other, to renew old friendships and to simply "remember when."

The Final Step ...

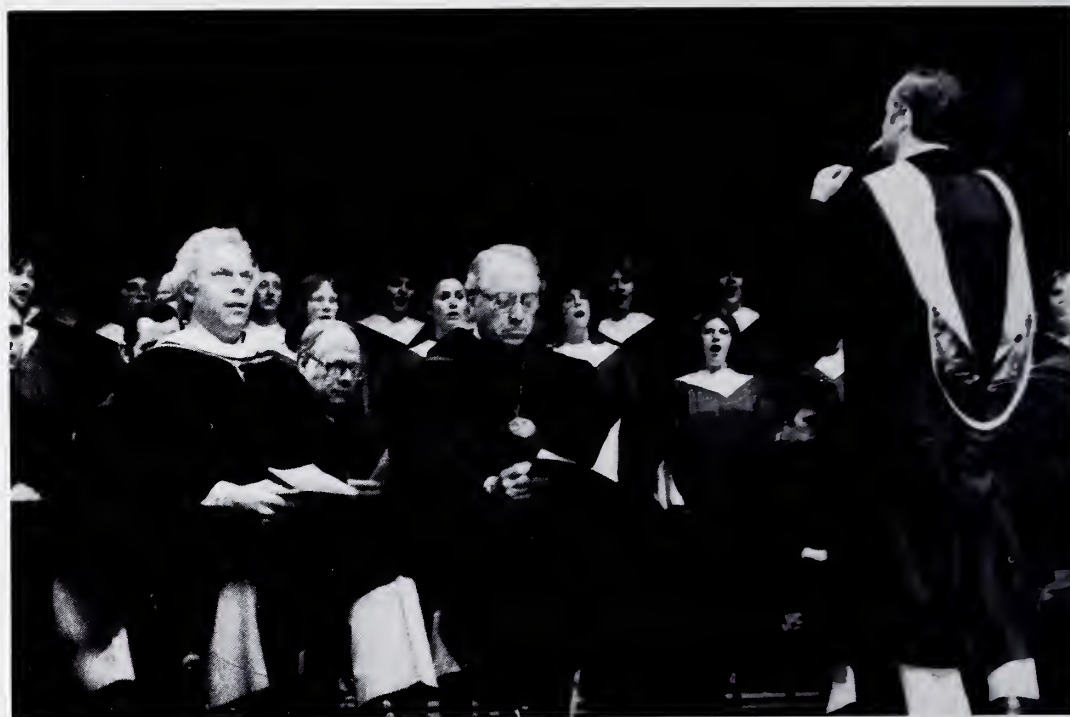

The 1981 Judson College Commencement ceremonies began June 6, with a dinner buffet held in the fieldhouse, followed by a concert in the Amphitheatre featuring the Choir, Chamber Singers, and Handbell Ringers. Festivities continued on Sunday, June 7, with the Baccalaureate held in the Herrick Chapel. Rev. Robert E. McQuaid, executive minister for the American Baptist Churches of Michigan, presented the sermon entitled "Choose Life."

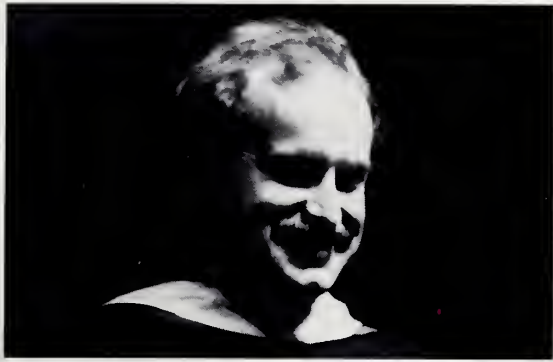

Time to Begin Again ...

The Commencement ceremonies held in Hemmens Auditorium, were highlighted by keynote speaker Wesley Pippert, United Press International correspondent; presentation of the Student Senate Service Award to Mark Spencer; and recognition of the retiring Dean, Dr. Edgar W. Boss.

Genesis Players

Coffee houses and public schools host presentations throughout the year by the Genesis Players. This group combines acting and improvisational skills for a ministry through the community and local church. Genesis Players frequently fulfill the role of playwright, in addition to their performing function, by creating thought-provoking skits with a Christian theme.

Members: Bonnie Shipman, Paula Shotwell, Jenni Russi, Jonathan, Jock Schloss, Dick Schmidt, and Jim Giessler.
Not pictured: Phil Redwine and Kent Atkinson.

Saturday Morning Club

The Saturday Morning Club is designed and dedicated for the purpose of reaching out and sharing God's word and love with children of low-income families in Elgin. Activities for the children included trick or treating, staying all night on campus during little sibs weekend, roller skating, visiting the Brookfield Zoo, and an Easter egg hunt. The leader and organizer for this year's club was Dave Griffiths.

JUNTO CLUB

By coordinating tours and outings, the Junto Club uses the city of Chicago for cultural experiences. This year's activities included trips to Chicago's Chinatown, Museum of Science and Industry, Brookfield Zoo, and a White Sox ballgame.

Campus Involvement

The campus benefited from projects of one of the more active organizations, The Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Carl Erskine, former star pitcher for the Brooklyn Dodgers, was invited to a campus chapel to share his testimony and involvement in the FCA. One hundred and eighty five conferees participated in a second project, the 1981 Chicagoland FCA Spring Mini-Conference. An impressive list of guests led discussion including Mel Kenyon; USAC Driving Champion, Bret Hall & Steve Long of the Chicago Sting; Nancy Swider, U.S. Olympic Speedskater; and Pat McCaskey, P.R. director for the Chicago Bears. Between these time-consuming events, the men's FCA helped launch a new organization . . . the Women's FCA. The new organization began at Judson during the fall trimester. This branch was designed for the women athletes, cheerleaders, and Pom Pons. It meets weekly with Advisor Coach Kathy Shemwell and monthly with the men's chapter.

College Republicans

The Judson College Republicans started the school year off with forty new members anxious to work for the election of Republicans on the state and national level. First on the agenda for the club was planning a large voter registration. Over 200 Judson students were registered, along with an additional 325 voters throughout the Elgin area. The College Republicans were also very active during the past election by donating much of their time making telephone calls, walking area precincts, passing out literature, driving voters to the polls on election day, along with campaigning on campus. The Judson College Republicans are affiliates of both the Illinois College Republicans Federation and the National College Republicans organization.

BASIC

Brothers and Sisters in Christ, better known as B.A.S.I.C., is an organization formed to help people grow spiritually and to prepare them for church leadership. Highlights of the year included fall, winter, and spring retreats, ghoulo-gram sales, a car wash, and a magic show which enabled them to send five of their own members out as B.S.U. Summer Missionaries.

The Student Senate is an elected, representative, organization that serves as the legislative board of the student body. The basic purpose of the Senate is to act as a mediator between the administration and the student body. They also sponsor various social activities and committees to encourage student involvement and representation. Student Senate meets weekly to not only consider special interest groups, but also to discuss concerns and complaints of the student body as a whole. President John Young and Vice President Melinda Trimpler headed the list of officers which included: Scott Bliler, Treasurer; Linda Strange, Recording Secretary, and Gwen Farrell, Corresponding Secretary.

'God and Us' — Women's Volleyball

A young team with a new coach described the 1980 Women's Volleyball team. Although the season record was 4-14, Coach Kathy Shemwell believed, "the season was a success in that we improved our skills and always continued to work together."

Another One Bites the Dust

The Judson soccer team ended its 1980 season with an outstanding record of 13-7-1, the NCCAA District and Regional Championships, plus a fourth place NCCAA National Championship title to their credit. The Eagles produced four school records during the season, including: Most goals (game)-13, Most goals (season)-79, and Most shut-outs-7.

Individual school records were also set by Ric Campbell for Most season assists-13 and Rob Ferrell for Most season and career shut-outs-7.

Eagles Take Fourth in Nationals

This year Judson College was honored when the soccer team earned a trip to the NCCAA National Championships held in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. Championships in both the Districts and Regionals were preparation for the Eagles fourth-in-the-nation honor.

Five individuals were honored for their outstanding play with both District and National Titles.

KEN BARGER — All-Tournament in the NCCAA and NIIC; All-District in the NCCAA, and named to the second team All-District in the NAIA.

TESFAYE TEWOLDE — All-Conference and All-District in the NCCAA; All-Conference in the NIIC, and second team All-District in the NAIA.

DAN HAILE — Selected to the NCCAA All-District Team.

RIC CAMPBELL — All-Conference in the NIIC; and first team All-District in the NAIA.

Westlund Receives All-American

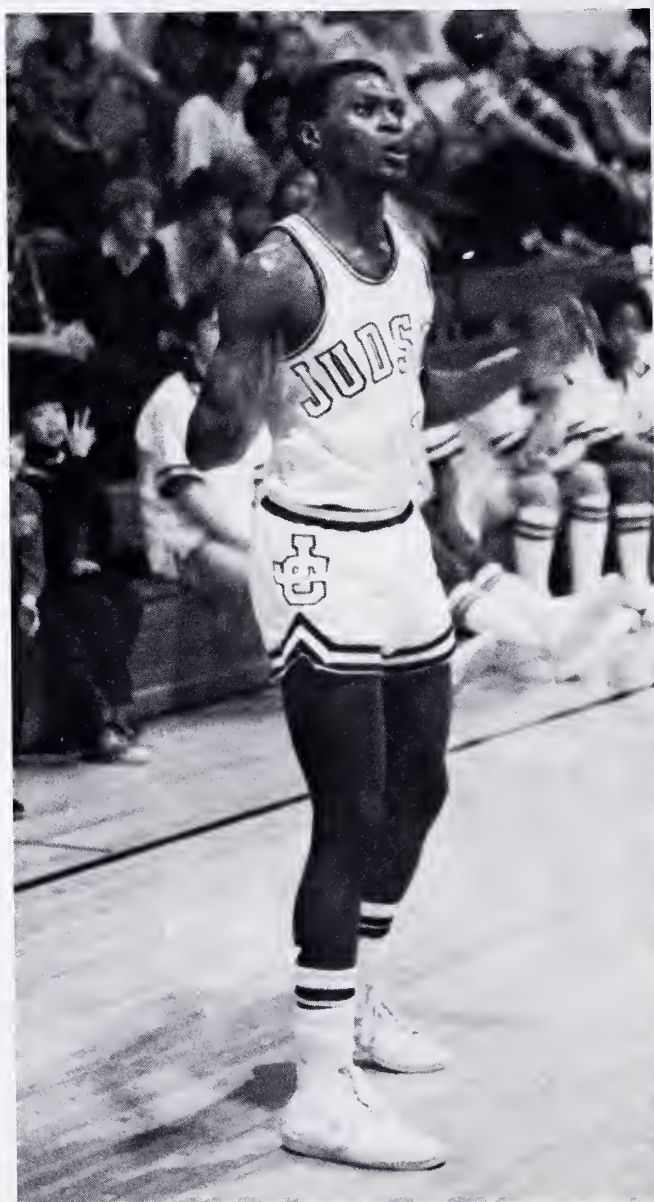

Judson's cross-country team contained many talented runners, but one individual's performance stood out above the others. Dan Westlund achieved an amazing list of honors and accomplishments including: NAIA District Champion, NAIA Qualifier, and a NCCAA All-American title for his sixth place finish. Westlund also set school records in the five mile run and the best season performance in both the four and five minute run. The team as a whole finished second in the conference and sixth in the NAIA districts.

Within Seconds of Victory . . .

"I was disappointed in the fact that we didn't win as much, but it was a learning year for everybody — a re-building year," explained first year coach Sam Harris. Although the men concluded the season with a 7-17 record, it was the most difficult schedule Judson has faced in seven or eight years. "In fact," stated Coach Harris, "if we had played last year's schedule, our record would have been better. The fans witnessed many close games and as Coach Harris said, "the percentages just have to go differently!"

Shooting Toward Excellence . . .

"It proved to be a rewarding and exciting season in many ways," stated women's basketball coach Kathy Shemwell. As a team, the women increased their game scoring average by nearly 15 points. "We captured a super conference victory through overtime play and in three other occasions lost games in the closing minutes. We were young, energetic and GROWING daily — as individuals, as a team, and as a witness for the Lord."

Although its roster included only nine players, the Women's Softball team proved the saying that "good things come in small packages." The group was a young one, but its members were determined and worked diligently throughout the season. As a result, they broke 11 different Judson College records and ended the year at 8-9.

Although the 6-6 record is the best in Judson's court history, it doesn't reflect the total potential the 1981 tennis team possessed.

Midway through the season a technical ineligibility was discovered, resulting in the forfeit of several dual matches.

However, the team still placed higher in the Districts than all other conference teams, and in the words of head coach Dave Logsdon produced "an overall outstanding season."

CAMPUS

DIRECTION

The Faculty, Students, Administration, and Staff hereby acknowledge the unique contribution
of
Dr. Edgar W. Boss

"In recognition of eighteen years of dedicated service to Judson College and the cause of Christ as academic dean and professor of Christian religion and philosophy.

Whereas Dr. Boss is a sterling example of a Christian gentleman, a committed disciple of Jesus Christ, a scholar in search of truth, a beloved teacher by life and word, and a patient molder of young minds and hearts.

Whereas Dean Boss is the founding architect of Judson's liberal arts curriculum, the creator of a most successful trimester calendar, the prime motivator in the faculty pursuit of excellence, and a faithful representative of the objectives and goals of the college.

Whereas Edgar Boss is a friend of faculty and students alike, a warm supportive colleague of administration and staff, a pleasant blend of piety and social concern, of humor and serious determination, and a lover of nature and of nature's Creator.

A life of such dedication to Christ and the Christian community has as its own reward an abiding peace which the world can neither give nor take away."

It is to Dr. Edgar W. Boss this 1981 Lantern is dedicated.

It's been a year of learning. That's the best way to summarize the trials and errors, the deadline all-nighters, the days (and days and days!) in the darkroom, the laughter, the tears, and the efforts of countless people who contributed to this book. However, one person has stood by me throughout all of the valleys and the mountaintops. He's always there to encourage and guide and correct. It is to him that this book is ultimately dedicated.

Psalms 37:4
